

Rules / Code of Conduct for the use of 29th Dublin Scout Den & Grounds

General (Applies to all groups)

- Car park can only be used by leaders/coaches/instructors
- Children can only be on Scout property when suitably supervised
- Each group is responsible for supplying their own First Aid Kit
- Non Scouting groups will have to supply a copy of their Public Liability insurance and/or a letter of Indemnity

Outdoors (Applies to all groups)

Areas out of bounds:

All rough ground, pump house and the bank leading down the steps

- If open fires are used they must be done in the campfire circle
- All embers from open fires must be dowsed with water and disposed of appropriately
- All litter must be picked up
- Waste water must be strained and disposed of appropriately
- No holes or trenches to be dug
- When camping or running a noisy activity a curfew of 12 midnight applies (we have neighbours)

Main hall

- Ensure fire exits are functioning on arrival
- Den should be swept and left tidy after use
- The fireplace area should be cleaned after use
- Chairs should be stacked against the wall
- Ensure all heaters are switched off on exit
- Ensure all fire exits & external doors are closed and bolted/locked on exit
- Ensure all windows are closed when exiting the den building

Kitchen

- All cutlery/cups etc., used must be washed, dried and put away
- Cooker to be kept clean
- No equipment from kitchen to be used on open fires
- Fridge to be emptied when leaving
- No food to be left behind
- Rubbish to be removed upon departure, this will not apply to overseas groups
- Work surfaces and sink to be cleaned, wiped and dried
- All floors to be swept and mopped before leaving

Toilets

- Must be kept clean and tidy
- Must be swept and mopped before leaving
- Each residential group is responsible for their own towels/soap/toilet rolls.
- Small supply available for other groups

Leaders Room

- Room to be swept and mopped before leaving
- Do not obstruct wall heaters
- Ensure all heaters and lights are switched off after use

Changing rooms/Stores

- Football boots are not allowed in the changing room
- Changing rooms to be swept and mopped before leaving
- Lost property must be taken off the premises by leader/coach/instructor on the night
- No access to the garage area
- If showers are used they must be mopped and cleaned
- Ensure all lights (including flood lights) are switched off when leaving

I have read and understood the 'Rules / Code of Conduct for the use of 29th Dublin Scout Den' above and I will ensure they are kept.

Date: _____

Signature _____

Print name _____

On behalf of (Insert name of group here) _____